

Due to concerns surrounding the COVID-19 pandemic, Aerie will not be sending students and staff to India as part of our Fall Semester in Wilderness Medicine. For the Fall 2020 term Aerie will be offering the following Semester program held entirely in Western Montana.

---

Fall Semester in Wilderness Medicine
Western Montana
9/14 - 11/12/2020

- 8/15: Online portion begins
- 9/14: First in-person day - Orientation
- 9/14 - 10/2: EMT section
- 10/3 - 10/9: Wilderness medicine topics and scenarios
- 10/10: NREMT practical exam
- 10/11 - 10/12: Red Card
- 10/13: Day off
- 10/14: Travel day to WRI
- 10/15 - 10/18: Rope rescue course
- 10/19: Travel day to backcountry lodging
- 10/20 - 10/23: Land navigation
- 10/24 - 10/26: LNT and outdoor leadership
- 10/27 - 11/4: Multi-day backcountry trip
- 11/5: Day off
- 11/6 - 11/11: Search and Rescue scenarios and exercises
- 11/12: Graduate and travel back to Missoula

---

Credits and Certifications

- 15 upper-division University of Montana credits
- Aerie Wilderness Emergency Medical Technician (W-EMT) certification
- National Registry EMT (EMT) certification
- State of Montana EMT certification (optional)
- American Heart Association BLS CPR certification
- Red Card Wildland Firefighting certification
- Rope Rescue Technician certification
- Search and Rescue certification
- Leave No Trace Trainer certification

